

PRESIDENT WILSON HAS NEW PLAN FOR RESTORING PEACE IN MEXICO

Will Discuss Plan With Cabinet Friday and May Make It Public Soon

OFFICIALS ARE RETICENT

Officials Are Reticent as to What Is Contemplated But Believe It Is Best Solution Yet

DIPLOMATS CRITICIZE THE U. S.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—President Wilson has under consideration a new plan for restoring peace in Mexico which he will discuss with his cabinet Friday and make it public within a few days.

Officials were reticent as to what he contemplated. As the United States has asked not only the European governments but those of Latin America and the Orient to withhold the formulation of their policy toward Mexico until the Washington government can make known its plans for dealing with the situation, the solution upon which the president and Secretary Bryan are working is the best yet suggested.

The American government's course of action will be embodied in a formal note which it is expected will set forth the principle that constitutional government alone must be established out of the chaos in Mexico and will suggest means for accomplishing that purpose.

Will Not Be Recognized.

Though the state department has not been informed officially of the reported purpose of General Huerta to declare General Blanes as having been elected it is certain that in line with previous declarations the election of last Sunday will not be recognized as constitutional. The inability of the Huerta government to conduct a constitutional election is thought will lead the American government to suggest a method of holding the elections in which safeguards and guarantees can be given which will permit the constitutionalists to participate freely. Diplomats here generally believe that before suggestions concerning any election can be carried out the elimination of Huerta from the situation must be accomplished.

It is thought that in much the same way as President Wilson outlined recently by John Lind the points upon which a satisfactory settlement of the trouble in Mexico seemed to be conditioned, he will repeat his suggestions but will add the stipulation that some one acceptable to all factions be placed in provisional authority to conduct a fair and free election. Details of an election plan, it is thought, would accompany such suggestions.

Might Force Retirement.

With the united support of foreign governments it is thought by some officials here that the retirement of Huerta could be accomplished although others who know of Huerta's personality declare he will not yield to any foreign pressure and will retire only if the constitutional arms are successful. Various alternative such as moral support for the constitutional cause of lifting the embargo on arms have been suggested as will influence Huerta's retirement.

That some comprehensive plan for dealing with the government must come about was the sentiment of the officials here.

Although no collective opinion was reached at the recent conference of diplomats at the Mexican capital many of them it was learned today criticized the United States severely for not taking such steps as would restore tranquility. Some suggested intervention in one form or another. The French minister is said to have been among those who roundly criticized the American policy while the Spanish minister is declared to have made caustic reference to the invasion of the rights of Spanish nationals, while the United States maintained acquiescent attitude.

Communication Cut Off.

Vera Cruz, Oct. 29.—General Felix Diaz, now a refugee on board the American battleship Louisiana, learned today that the privilege of asylum on battleship carries with it certain restrictions not unlike prison regulations. By order of the admiral Diaz is not permitted to communicate with anyone from shore without his permission and the admiral has given General Diaz to understand that such permission will rarely be given. The enforcement of the order is rigid. Today the general began talking with a man who brought his baggage aboard. The conversation was stopped by the officer of the deck and Diaz sent below.

Admiral Fletcher explained that while he was willing to place his flag at the disposal of General Diaz as an asylum, he did not propose to expose himself to the criticism of making it a place of possible plotting. He asserted his confidence that General Diaz would not attempt to abuse hospitality by meeting friends there and from a safe vantage point induce intrigue or conspiracy, but he was resolved to take no chances. The disposition of Diaz and his companions has not yet been determined, but it appears probable that they will eventually be sent ashore.

Preference for Havana.

General Diaz has expressed his preference for Havana, adding, however, that he was willing to be sent ashore anywhere except at British ports, since he was convinced that the British authorities would send him back to Mexico. He inquired of Mr. Lind, who visited him today, if he thought landing him at Havana would embarrass the United States. It is likely that he will be landed at Key West, from which port he could proceed to Havana if he desired.

With reference to the future Diaz professed to be through with politics and rebellions and says he will ask nothing better, so long as his country is in its present state, than to be permitted to live in peace abroad.

Three warships, the German cruiser Hertha and the United States cruiser Tacoma and gunboat Wheeling are now anchored in the inner harbor. The Tacoma entered today to take on coal. The port authorities expressed some apprehension at the near approach of another warship.

OBJECT TO CONVICTION OF DYNAMITE PLOTTERS

ARGUMENTS ARE LAID BEFORE U. S. CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS

Chester H. Krum, Chief Counsel for Men Convicted at Indianapolis, Argues in Behalf of Ryan, Twitmore and Other Labor Union Officials.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Objection to the conviction of thirty of the thirty-three "dynamite plotters" of Indianapolis last December were laid before the United States circuit court of appeals today in an appeal of the men to have the verdict set aside.

On behalf of Frank H. Ryan, president of the Iron workers union; Olat A. Twitmore of San Francisco, and the other labor union officials adjudged guilty of complicity in the McNamara dynamite plots, Chester H. Krum, their chief counsel, argued before the court.

That even if the defendants had been guilty of illegally transporting dynamite and nitroglycerine on passengers in violation of federal law and even if they had blown up the work of contractors who refused to join the union, the statute of limitation had run against the offenses before the men were tried.

That the federal court at Indianapolis committed an error in allowing the testimony of Edward Clark, confessed dynamite maker, to testify against the other men because Clark and McNamara were co-defendants and their testimony was incompetent.

That the destruction of non-union work was an offense against the state and not against the federal government.

That the law prohibiting transportation of explosives on passenger trains was a precaution for the safety of passengers and was directed against the railroads.

That the men were convicted both of conspiracy and of direct violation of the same evidence and therefore were punished more than once for the same offense.

"It was as invalid to punish these men twice or three as it would be to try them more than once on the same charges," said Mr. Krum. "Further, it is inconceivable that men residing in Boston, San Francisco, New Orleans, Duluth, Philadelphia and other places equally scattered could have gotten together with a common understanding to direct the actions of McNamara and the McNamara. Most of them never heard of McNamara. The law specifically designates passenger trains. What would be the purpose of these men in conspiring to carry explosives particularly on passenger trains? There could be none."

District Attorney C. W. Miller of Indianapolis tomorrow will begin the argument of the government.

Minneapolis, Oct. 29.—Work on the mansion which the late Charles G. Gates was erecting here was stopped today on telegraphic orders from the general contractors in New York to their Minneapolis representatives.

It was announced that nothing further would be done until the architects and builders had consulted with the widow and mother of the dead multi-millionaire. Work was begun on the Gates home more than a year ago and its completion was anticipated some time in 1914. The building, the plans for which call for the most palatial residence in the northwest was intended by Mr. Gates, whose magnificent art collection left him by his father and which is now stored in New York.

STRIKERS BITTER AGAINST TROOPS

BURNING OF POST OFFICE MAY BRING FEDERAL COMPLICATIONS

Striking Miners Defeat Guards at Auglar and Capture Office of Southwestern Fuel Co.—Building and Contents Is Destroyed by Fire—Camp at Ludlow Is Devoid of All Show of Arms.

TRINIDAD, Colo., Oct. 29.—Violence among the striking miners in the southern Colorado coal fields today shifted from Ludlow and its immediate vicinity to Auglar six miles north of the Big Ludlow tent colony. Possible federal complications were precipitated at the office of the Southwestern Fuel company, where last night and early this morning a battle waged between strikers and a band of mine guards. After defeating the guards and capturing the mine office, in which the postoffice also is situated, the strikers are charged with having knocked over a stove, setting fire to the building, which was completely destroyed, together with its contents of United States mail, money orders and money.

Postmaster Arthur Samples late today declared evidences were present that the mail had been rifled before the building was fired, since envelopes, opened, were found nearby half burned. The mine office also was completely destroyed with all its contents, the camp having been surrendered.

The firemen who were at work in the tipple house were the first of the working miners to be fired upon. They tied down the mine siren and deserted the place which was then being shelled by heavy fire. The fifteen guards gathered at the post-office and there fought with the strikers until they had been overpowered by superior numbers.

After working their will with the southwestern offices, the miners went to the Empire mine of the same company and there began an attack. No resistance was offered them and they withdrew shortly, doing no more damage than riddling the boiler house with bullets.

No one was injured in either camp. The strikers' camp at Ludlow today was devoid of all show of arms. The boxes of ammunition heretofore openly displayed have disappeared. The display of arms is not so open among the mine guards as it had been.

Officers of the Colorado National Guard which today completed its organization and established its camp on the outskirts of the city, say the rifles and ammunition had not been surrendered to them. No trouble of any character occurred between the mine guards and strikers around Ludlow colony today. The presence of the troops here has caused much bitterness on the part of the strikers and a meeting of the executive board of the allied unions of Colorado met in Pueblo tonight to discuss the situation and call a meeting of the delegates of each trade union in the state to determine upon the advisability of calling a strike in every department of organized labor.

A bomb explosion in the camp of the Colorado Fuel & Iron Co. at Sopris, the burning of a bridge of the Colorado & Wyoming railway between strikers and guards at Delagua were reported to Adjutant General Chase as happening tonight. A detachment of militiamen was sent to Sopris.

Six Strikers Confess.

Calumet, Mich., Oct. 29.—At the hearing before a Houghton justice today of the nine strikers charged with the murder of Deputy Sheriff Pollock on October 8, two of the defendants, Luka Plez and George Briski, who had previously confessed to being implicated in the killing of Pollock, refused to testify. Their signed confessions, however, were introduced as evidence. An adjournment was taken for one week.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY MAILS

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 29.—James T. Johnson, negro, formerly a railway mail clerk, was arrested here today on an indictment returned by the federal grand jury at Danville, Ill., charging him with robbing the mails. The charge is in connection with the disappearance of $3,000 enroute from Carbondale, Ill., to the First National bank at Cobden, Ill.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL WIDOW AND CHILD; THEN DRINKS POISON

BURLINGTON, Iowa, Oct. 29.—Mrs. Mary Tiedemann, a widow, was assaulted by T. E. Hall early this morning and badly beaten at her home on High street with a hammer. Hall is 60 years old and roomed at the Tiedemann house. He also attempted to kill Mrs. Tiedemann's little daughter who was sleeping with Mrs. Tiedemann.

Hall then went to his room and drank poison, dying within a short time. It is believed that Hall was insane at the time.

Mrs. Tiedemann is at a local hospital in a serious condition. Hall, who has been engaged in the heavy business, was apparently all right last night.

Shortly after midnight he rushed into Mrs. Tiedemann's room where she and the little girl were sleeping and began to pound Mrs. Tiedemann with a hammer. He struck her sev-

BANKER ATTACKS CURRENCY REFORM

ASSERTS BUSINESS INTERESTS WILL BE FIRST TO SUFFER

President Forgan of the First National Bank of Chicago Declares Government Has Confused Two Entirely Different Branches of Banking.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Asserting the government has confused two entirely different branches of banking and proposes to make the national banks suffer for abuses with which only a handful have had any connection, David M. Forgan, president of the First National bank today attacked the pending currency bill. He told 700 members of the association of commerce that the business interests would be the first to suffer. He said the bill would cut deep into the resources of the city banks, 60 per cent of whose total deposits now come from the country banks and in so doing would reduce by the same degree the amount available for commercial loans.

The whole situation he said was due to confusion of National bank operations with those of the big private institutions in Wall street acting as promoters and dealers in stocks.

With them, he admitted, are associated a few large New York banks.

Mr. Forgan attacked the theory of equal credits and asserted that on the contrary the banks are seeking everywhere to sell credit and competing with each other in the enterprise.

CAUSES NO DELAY IN MAIL TRANSPORTATION IN NEW YORK

Several of the Striking Chauffeurs Face Charges of Interfering With the U. S. Mail.

New York, Oct. 29.—The strike of 125 chauffeurs of automobile trucks carrying United States mail caused no delay in the transportation of the mail today, according to the federal authorities, who said the places of the men who went out had been filled by other drivers. IMPORTANT CHANGES IN CURRENCY BILL

Complexion of Federal Reserve Board Is Materially Altered by Amendment Adopted

MAY BE FURTHER CHANGED

Another Amendment Is Pending to Take the Secretary of the Treasury and All Ex-officio Members of the Board

DELAY VOTE ON CENTRAL BANK PLAN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Important changes in the administration currency bill resulted from the first day's executive work on the measure by the senate committee. The committee passed over for later action the proposition to substitute a central government controlled bank for the regional bank plan in the bill, on which the members were evenly divided and proceeded to perfect the details of the measure. The complexion of the proposed federal reserve board was materially altered by amendments adopted today and it probably will be further changed. It was decided to increase the membership of the board from seven as fixed in the house bill to nine and to eliminate the secretary of agriculture and the comptroller of the currency from service on the board. Another amendment is pending to take off the board the secretary of the treasury and to remove all ex-officio members. The committee decided to arrange the terms so that one member's service would expire each year. This provision is designed to meet the demand that the service of the members of the board be given continuity to enable them to profit by their experience on the board. It was decided to eliminate the organization committee proposed by the house bill and to have the federal reserve board appointed immediately with the power to organize and place in operation any system devised, whether a central bank plan or a regional bank scheme—is finally agreed upon.

A large part of today's session was devoted to a discussion of the number of regional banks to be created by the bill, if the regional plan is maintained, but no conclusion was reached. The administration supporters in the committee endeavored to keep the number as near twelve as possible, but other members favored four, five or six banks. It was argued that New York, Chicago and St. Louis, the present central reserve cities, would need regional institutions and New Orleans and San Francisco were mentioned as possible locations. A decision on the question probably will be reached tomorrow.

The committee has temporarily abandoned all efforts to dispose of the central bank plan, on which the committee stands six to six. The members will proceed to develop both the regional and the central bank plan so far as possible along parallel lines until each is perfected so far as the committee can agree. Then the vote will be taken on the two plans.

NEW TARIFF WILL NOT AFFECT HARDWARE MANUFACTURERS

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 29.—That the American manufacture will be able to successfully compete against foreign made goods entering this country under the new tariff law, at least as far as hardware products are concerned, was the opinion expressed here today both at the convention of the American Hardware Manufacturers' association and that of the Hardware Jobbers' association. W. E. Taylor, of Cleveland, president of the Jobbers' association, declared in his annual address that there was no alarm among members of his organizations as to the effect of the new law and that in his opinion eventually it will work to increase production in this country.

"The American will be able to hold his own," Pierpont N. Noyes of Onida, N. Y., president of the American Hardware Manufacturers' association, said in addressing that body. "He not only will be able successfully to compete with the foreign manufacturer in this country but will continue to find market for American goods abroad."

MAKE PLANS FOR NEXT YEAR'S CHAUTAUQUA

Organization on Different Lines is Suggested — Fifty Guarantors Wanted—Slight Deficit in Finances This Year.

Before the close of the chautauqua last September a special committee on reorganization was appointed to consider plans for the management of the enterprise another year. The meeting of the committee was delayed until the accounts of the last chautauqua were all in so that it might be definitely known just how the finances are.

The first meeting of the reorganization committee was called yesterday afternoon at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. There were present Dr. Josephine Milligan, Mrs. David Reid, Frank J. Hehl, Frank Byrns, Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp, Bernard Gause, James Weir Elliott, A. C. Rice, Dr. C. E. Black, Paul Fritchey, James H. Shaw and S. W. Nichols.

Plan For Organization.
The object of the meeting was stated to be the formation of a plan for the future management of the chautauqua. Mr. Fritchey said it was the desire of the Chamber of Commerce to be relieved of the task hereafter as it didn't seem a suitable part of its duty or province.

Mr. Shaw said that in some places a number of citizens severally guaranteed the enterprise against loss and the plan was found to work very well. He explained at length in the manner of what he considered the best plan and remarks were made by a number of those present.

It was generally agreed that the bills for expenses might have been materially lessened by different management but no fault was to be laid at the door of any one in the management this year for the greater part of the work fell on a few who couldn't look after anything as they would have liked to.

Bills Higher Than Expected.
Mr. Shaw explained also why the bills were higher than they might have been under some circumstances. The contract with him was to pay him $150 for platform services and three-fourths of the profits, he to stand all losses. He explained that as he was so much interested in the outcome he couldn't exercise a very great scrutiny over expenditures for if he had there would at once have been the charge that he was trying unduly to save his own pocket and so create dissatisfaction.

It was the sense of the meeting that there should be a suitable number of guarantors for the enterprise and finally, as a result of the meeting it was decided to recommend to the evening meeting of all ticket subscribers at the courthouse to have an effort made to secure a suitable number of guarantors who would severally guarantee the enterprise from loss. All persons subscribing for tickets and all guarantors to have a vote in choosing a directorate to manage the chautauqua, the directors to come from the list of guarantors.

The Evening Meeting.
A rather small but enthusiastic meeting was held at the final financial report and decide on the manner of conducting the chautauqua the coming year.

Mr. Fritchey, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, read the final report of the finances. Some bills which seemed entirely too high had been scaled down somewhat though it seemed to many they were yet far too much but leaving them as they are there will be a deficit of some $13 in the finances of the last chautauqua. The fact was that a few did most of the work and in some cases there was an unavoidable increase in bills which would not happen again.

Mr. Fritchey read the report of the organization committee and it was placed before the meeting.

Mr. Shaw explained his position and suggested that a different plan be adopted for the management of the enterprise next summer. He felt he should not be the guarantor as in the past and that the plan suggested by the afternoon meeting was best. He explained that Richmond, Ind., had a very successful chautauqua and they had a board of directors and a list of guarantors who had not yet been called on to pay anything and he thought it the best plan for this place.

Will Seek Guarantors.
The original arrangement was that the Chamber of Commerce might conduct the affair another year and he had the option of continuing as in the past but he was not obligated to do so.

Considerable informal discussion followed and finally the report of the organization committee was unanimously adopted.

Dr. C. E. Black, the chairman, was instructed to name a committee of five persons to solicit fifty guarantors of ten dollars each. He said he would report later.

All present willing to be guarantors were asked to sign and fourteen names were secured on the spot.

Mr. Shaw said he wanted to help along the enterprise and would make a different contract for another year. He would be willing to accept $200 for platform services and half the net profits up to $100, the association to have all in excess of that sum.

Adjournment was taken subject to the call of the committee on organization.

Mr. French Discovers Flames Just Before Retiring—Two Automobiles and Some Vehicles Are Saved—Origin Is a Mystery.

Wednesday night about 8:45 o'clock the large barn at the home of Charles S. French in Chapin was burned to the ground, entailing a loss estimated at $1,000. Mr. French had the structure insured, but could not ascertain the exact amount last night.

Mr. French was just ready to go to bed when he looked out one of the upstairs windows of his residence and discovered the fire. At that time the loft was on fire and the flames were burning through the cupola. He immediately dressed and gave an alarm to the operator at the Chapin telephone exchange, who sent word to the church where services were in progress, and was only a few minutes that a large crowd was on the scene.

The chemical engine owned by the town of Chapin was taken to the scene and as it was evident from the first that the barn could not be saved the men turned their attention to saving a smaller barn, one corner of which was close to the larger structure and they also made an effort to get the contents of the larger barn to a place of safety. Mr. French's large Packard automobile and a smaller runabout, three buggies, a binder, a wagon and all of the harness excepting one set were taken out.

Together with the barn there were destroyed 25 or 30 tons of hay, 150 bushels of corn, 60 bushels of oats, 200 bushels of rye and a stock of farming implements, including a set of new cultivators, which were owned by George Smith, one of Mr. French's tenants. The paint on the little barn was badly blistered and a northwest wind was all that saved Mr. French's house from destruction as it stands only about 150 feet from the site of the barn.

The barn was a large one, 56x40 feet, and was built by Mr. French in 1882. A new roof was put on last year and this year the barn was repainted. The structure was in fine repair and Mr. French estimated his loss last night at about $4,000. The loss to Mr. Smith will amount to several hundred dollars.

The origin of the fire is a mystery and Mr. French stated last night that he had not the slightest idea as to how the flames were started. He said that he was in the loft of the barn Tuesday and threw down some hay and at that time everything was in good order. He also stated that he had not seen any tramps around the building. Mr. French intends to rebuild the structure as soon as practicable.

UNLIGHTED STREETS CAUSE NEAR TRAGEDY.

G. F. Brown Took Shot at W. G. Benson Who Frightened Him in Darkness.

An accidental shooting, which might have been serious, took place Tuesday night in front of the residence of William G. Benson, 419 North Diamond street, when George F. Brown, frightened unintentionally by Mr. Benson, shot at him with his hunting rifle, fortunately missing him. Mr. Brown was accompanied by Mrs. Brown, who screamed when she saw Mr. Benson, who was on his way home, appear suddenly but a few feet away in the thick darkness of the unlighted street. Quicker than thought, Mr. Benson fired at the dark form ahead with a rifle he had had hunting that afternoon and had not yet taken home. The whole affair was over in an instant and all were more than glad that there were no serious consequences.

WILL MAKE CONCORD A VILLAGE

Petition to be Filed Soon for Incorporation of Settlement Seventy Years Old.

J. J. Rayborn and Charles Rexroat were in the city yesterday conferring with Judge Brockhouse regarding the incorporation of the present settlement into the "Village of Concord." When the legal steps are complete Concord will be a village two square miles in area and with a population of 312, a slight margin over the legal minimum, 300.

It will have been about seventy years since the settlement was founded by pioneers from the Congregational church. The matter of incorporation has been agitated some time and was well considered by the residents of the territory in question, who signed the petition for the new village. After certain preliminaries have been looked after, the petition will be filed and the judge will call an election to get the agreement to incorporate the village from all voters in the two square miles prescribed. Among the other Concord citizens who have worked for incorporation are E. A. Cratz, L. P. Bayliss, Monroe Leonard and J. A. Smith. The only possible opposition will be from certain land holders and the railway company, whose taxes will be increased by the incorporation. Concord was named from the church which was built in 1844 by Congregational ministers. In 1859 a store was built by David Fuller on one of the "Four Corners" as the place was then called. Soon the town was laid out by David Fuller and all was given the name of Concord. In 1864 the church building was sold and instituted in a new building at Joy Prairie where it has since been.

At the present time Concord has three churches, three general stores, a lodge each of the Masons and Odd Fellows, an elevator, a lumber yard and a bank. It is a prosperous community inhabited by citizens among the most substantial in this county.

Most Dangerous of Minor Ailments

Of the minor ailments a cold is by far the most dangerous, not in itself but the serious diseases it so often leads to. Pneumonia and consumption always start with a cold. When you have a cold you are much more likely to contract the infectious diseases such as diphtheria, scarlet fever and whooping cough. Colds are easily cured, in fact, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of this most common ailment. It is pleasant and safe to take. Why take such desperate chances when so reliable and trustworthy a medicine may be obtained for a quarter. For sale by all dealers.

MINE OPERATORS PROTEST AGAINST RAILROAD RATES

Witnesses Assert Rates on Coal as Levied Against Them Are Discriminatory as Compared With Rates Elsewhere.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Intervening petitioners in the interstate commerce case involving the complaint of coal mine operators in the Springfield group, who are protesting against the rates of forty-nine railroads, offered their evidence before Interstate Commerce Commissioner James S. Harlan today. Witnesses for the intervening petitioners asserted that the rates on coals levied against them by the railroads were discriminatory as compared with the rates to given points from other parts of the state and points in Indiana.

A table showing the mileage and rates to Marshalltown, Iowa, from various points in Illinois was offered as showing how some points were more favored by the roads than others. The table shows that the rate from Sullivan, Ind., to Marshalltown, Iowa, nearly two and a half times further away than is Peoria, is only 50 cents a ton higher. Peoria is in the Springfield group. The mine operators claim that Marshalltown is normally a natural market for coal near Peoria rather than coal near Sullivan, yet the freight rates give the Peoria operators little advantage over the Sullivan miners. The intervening petitioners finished presenting their evidence this afternoon. A short conference between the railroad attorneys was then held. It was then announced the attorneys wished the matter continued indefinitely in order that an examination of the figures presented might be thoroughly made.

EIGHTY YEAR OLD WOMAN IS MURDERED IN HER HOME

Daughters Find Aged Mother Dead and Their Father in Act of Attempting Suicide.

Pelham, N. H., Oct. 29.—The 80 year old wife of Ernest McCoy, a farmer, was found murdered in the parlor of their home tonight. She had been shot. McCoy made an unsuccessful attempt to end his own life by shooting just as his three daughters arrived hurriedly in response to letters he had written them saying that he was about to commit suicide. He is expected to recover.

Mrs. McCoy had not been seen for ten days by neighbors. Medical Referee B. G. Moran, in charge of the inquest, said she had been dead for several days.

The coroner's jury has not yet decided whether McCoy should be charged with killing his wife.

McCoy Later Arrested.
McCoy was later arrested and taken to Manchester where he will be arraigned on a charge of murder. He is alleged to have confessed. "I shot her in a fit of anger two weeks ago," McCoy said according to county solicitor Sullivan adding that domestic unhappiness caused the trouble between them. Mrs. McCoy began action for a divorce two months ago and according to neighbors she said she was afraid of her husband on account of threats he had made.

DANGERS AT VANDALIA ROAD CROSSING TO BE LESSENED

Chicago & Alton Property Owners Agree to Changes to Help Along With Safety—Electric Warning Bell Put Out of Service by Car Current.

One of the most dangerous railroad crossings in the county is out on the Vandalia road, at Nichols Park. Past efforts to induce the C. & A. officials to do something to render this crossing less dangerous have been unsuccessful until the authorities of South Jacksonville took the matter up with Supt. Henderson, who at once sent T. S. Shuman, an official of the road, living at Roodhouse, who spent several hours here Tuesday looking over the situation and deciding what had better be done to make the crossing less unsafe. It was decided first, to remove all fences, which will make the entrance to the park less unsightly, next to grade down the high embankment south of the highway and west of the railroad, so that approaching trains can be seen from the road by persons going east. O. F. Bufile has offered to co-operate with the railroad officials and grade down his land, lying adjacent to the right of way of the railroad, so as to secure desired results.

This, when done, will be a great improvement. A curious condition has developed in regard to the danger signal bell at this point. It has been discovered that electric induction from the street railway has completely demoralized the electric bell of the railroad, especially when the ground is wet or even damp. It has been a query in the minds of many why the bell has been useless and out of order, while signal bells generally along the line have done effective service. Mr. Shuman is of the opinion that an expert electrician will be able to devise some means to remedy the difficulty by cutting off the induction which occurs, more especially when the street car is standing at the crossing and the current on in full force.

In regard to the east side of the railway it is up to the park board to look after that. The railway will undoubtedly co-operate in doing whatever seems necessary to carry out their avowed purpose of making "Safety First" their watch word.

If your little one's tongue is coated, it is a sure sign the stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. THE STATE FAIR AS SEEN BY A MORGAN COUNTY BOY.

Our county superintendent, Mr. H. C. Montgomery, was hunting boys to go to the boys' state fair school as a delegate. A neighbor was in his office one day and told him of me. Mr. Montgomery then sent me word to come down and see him. I went and after we had talked awhile, I decided I would go.

I left on the morning of October 4th, over a branch of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, arriving at the boys' state fair camp about 8:30, but could not register until 9. My first impression was that this was the place for a boy to be and everything was just as it had been described to me. This great Illinois state fair is different from what it used to be in its early days. It used to go from place to place, but now, and has been for several years, it is established at Springfield. The object of this fair is to show the people the different kinds of stock raised, different kinds of machinery used and to compare all things together so the people can have ideas of what the state and county is doing.

At this capital are many interesting things, among some are: The state house which you can look through, the arsenal and the supreme court building, Lincoln's monument and home, which most of the boys got to see. The extent and character of the live stock is very great. They have buildings prepared especially for their use here. The live stock that is brought here is of the very best quality. The live stock exhibitors have their exhibitions every day at the Coliseum. The one having the finest stock is awarded a prize amounting to several dollars. There were also the exhibition of farm machinery; they had their tents and building placed around the Dome building. This machinery consists of many kinds which is needed on the farm, such as threshing machines, steam plows, steam rollers, gasoline engines for many purposes and much other too numerous to mention. They also have in the Dome building products grown in Illinois, such as fruit and flowers.

In connection with this state fair is the boys' state fair school, which has been established for four years. This school lasts just one week during the state fair and is composed of two boys, one from the town school and one from the country schools, from each county in the state, with the exception of Cook county, which is entitled to 18 delegates. This year there were about 250 boys in attendance. The school is growing every year. The school is made up of several rows of sleeping tents, two big lecture tents and an eating tent. The tents are numbered; every district has their own tent. Besides these tents are the officers' tents. On the ground, to keep order over the boys, were two police, two soldiers and Capt. Knox and they certainly kept good order. The course of study given at the school was composed of lectures given as follows:

"Farming as an Occupation," by Eugene Davenport.
"Hog Cholera," by Dr. A. T. Peters.
"Battle of the Cells," by Dr. J. D. Robertson.
"Ropes," splicing and knotting, by E. A. White.
"Trees as Factors in Education of Boys," by A. W. Nolan.
"Stock Judging," horses, by J. J. Yoke.
"Veterinary Science," by Dr. Jos. Hughes.
"Road Making," by A. N. Johnson.
"Plows, Equalizers and Hitches," by E. A. White.

"Physical Improvements of Soils," by H. W. Stewart.
"Cattle," stock judging, by W. H. Smith.
"The Farmers' Vegetable Garden," by C. E. Durst.
"Crop Rotation," by L. R. Hegnauer.
"Stock Judging," swine, by W. J. Carmichael.
"Road Improvement," by W. G. Edens.

"Proper Feeding and Housing of Poultry," by D. O. Barts.
"Habit of Weeds and How They are Best Eradicated," by L. R. Hegnauer.
"Opportunities in Agriculture for Boys," by F. R. Rankin.
"Stock Judging," sheep, by V. A. Place.
"Alfalfa," by A. P. Grout.

Besides the above lectures we also heard talks from Governor Duane and United States Senator Sherman, which were very interesting.

The purpose of this boys' state fair school was many and great. It helped the boys to learn how to make more and better up-to-date farmers. I feel that my week was profitably well spent and we got to see the fair at a small cost.

CONFERENCE ON GRADING CORN

Washington, Oct. 29.—Scores of persons interested in the handling and marketing of corn attended the public hearing held at the department of agriculture today and expressed their views upon the tentative grades for corn, as announced on August 22, 1913, by the department of agriculture. The hearing was called to give every one interested in the subject an opportunity to make suggestions concerning the new grading of corn which the department of agriculture proposes to establish. This is the first attempt to establish a scientific and standard grading for corn and will take the place of the personal judgment method by which corn has been bought and sold heretofore.

For more than three years the experts of the department have been working to develop a quick, cheap and satisfactory method of determining the moisture content of corn. The department of agriculture proposes to establish seven grades, based on the moisture content, the acidity and the proportion of injured grains.

HEARING OF IRON WORKERS' APPEAL IS BEGUN.

Large Number of Lawyers and Labor Representatives Gather at Indianapolis.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—The hearing of arguments on the appeal of the 37 officers and members of the Structural Iron Workers' union, who were convicted of conspiracy in the dynamite trial at Indianapolis and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment, began in the federal court here today and attracted a large number of lawyers and labor representatives. The hearing will probably occupy several days and its final outcome is awaited with intense interest. It is the general opinion that in case a new trial should become necessary the government would be even better prepared than at the first trial and would have no difficulty in bringing about the conviction of the defendants. The confessions made by George L. Davis, a structural iron worker, who was arrested a short time ago upon the charge of having been connected with certain dynamite outrages, have placed into the hands of the government a great deal of valuable evidence against many of the defendants of the previous trial. Two men, Orville McManigal and Ed Clark, who actually did much of the dynamiting work, testified for the government in the first trial last fall and Davis would be a third dynamiter to testify in case of a second trial.

The history of this great conspiracy case dates back to 1905, when the ironworkers' union began its struggle with the National Erectors' association, an organization of structural iron and steel contractors employing non-union workers. It appears that in the course of the struggle, between 1905 and 1911, the conspirators of the iron workers' union caused more than one hundred dynamite explosions to destroy bridges and buildings erected by the National Erectors' association. Following the arrest of John J. McNamara, James R. McNamara and Orville McManigal in connection with the Los Angeles Times explosion conspiracy charges were made against many of the officials of the iron workers' union. President Frank M. Ryan of the international union, Herbert S. Hockin, acting secretary-treasurer; John T. Butler of Buffalo, first vice president and many other prominent officials of the union were among the 38 convicted and only one, H.S. Hockin, declined to appeal.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES.

Christy Mathewson "stacked up" against Walter Johnson in Tulsa, Okla., and collapsed after the Sox had pounded him for six hits and two runs in four innings. With the "blowing" of Big Six, the bleachers in right field collapsed also, killing a United States soldier and severely injuring thirty-five women and men. The structure was a flimsy weather-beaten contraption and was jammed with 700 people, about 200 more than its capacity, according to press dispatches.

Garry Herrmann is the first of the big moguls to uncock his oil can and sprinkle the fluid upon the turbulent baseball waters. The Cincinnati editor in an interview given out Wednesday says the players' requests are not unreasonable and that all differences between the men and the magnates will be amicably adjusted. In the same breath, however, he attempts to set himself up as a dictator of the terms of the protocol. Speaking for the national commission, he insists that all differences must be settled with the players individually. The commission will not meet nor recognize Davy Fultz, president of the players' organization, he declares. Garry, Ban and Tom will be compelled to back up on this bluff, because the players in their recent delegational convention invested full power in Fultz to act for them, and fandom of days gone by have confidence in Davy's ability to act and act quickly.

Branch Rickey, manager of the Browns, is evaporating some nasty talk anent George Stovall, whom he accuses of having made attempts to kidnap some of his precious freight. He says upon the team's return from the last road trip he broke into Stovall's locker at the Browns' club house and confiscated George's uniform when he learned that the depressed manager was trying to recruit his players for the Federal league. There must be some error in the transmission of this stuff over the wires. The Federal league officials declare they are going to get the very best players money will buy, and this being true, St. Louis is the last place in the world its scouts would expect to locate talent.

Buck Weaver was the clouting demon at Tulsa on Tuesday. He was up five times and hit 'er out five times, twice for two stations. Mathewson was pie for the erratic Buck.

Mike Gibbons was in Chicago on Tuesday and he stated that under no circumstances would he meet Packey McFarland at the welterweight, 142 pounds. He will meet the Stock Yards Adonis at 145 pounds, weigh in at 3 o'clock upon the afternoon of the mill, and says it will be folly to think of any other terms. The truth of the matter is that the Gopher boxer has out-grown the welter. In fact he now is close to the lightweight notch. This evening he meets "Kid" Wagner at Wilkesbarre, Pa., and the weight will be 158 pounds. The learned Mike has become a trifle flushed as to his ability and boasted that McFarland would be more than anxious to accept his terms. McFarland does not have to crawl to Gibbons, nor to any other man in the squared circle today. He has more money in bank and invested in real estate than any of them; is the greatest boxer and ring general of all time, and when he tells Mike Gibbons he will box him as a welter he does not mean 158 or 145 pounds at 3 o'clock. He calls for the welter and welter he will have if he is expected to play.

SCOTT HOLDS NEW YORK GIANTS TO SIX HITS AND WHITE SOX WIN

Chicago Pitcher Whiffs Twelve Batters and Comiskey's Warriors are Victors 7 to 1.

Muskogee, Okla., Oct. 29.—Scott, pitching for the Chicago White Sox, held the New York Giants to six scattered hits and struck out twelve batters today, Chicago winning 7 to 1. Five of Chicago's runs came in the third inning. Hearne then relieved Fromme. Lobert's home run in the first inning was the Giant's only tally. The score: Chicago . . . 015 000 010—7 9 0 New York . . . 100 000 000—1 6 2 Batteries—Scott and Daley; Fromme, Hearne and Meyers, Wingo.

HUMAN HEREDITY.

It is Confined, So It Is Assorted, to a Likeness to Parents.

There are few subjects on which so much "scientific" nonsense is talked and written as on heredity. Not very much is known of it as regards plants, and of animals and almost nothing as regards humanity. To read books on heredity, especially those of the Eugenic society, is to read a mass of suppositions and hazardous inductions where most of the facts are negative and only the exceptions are positive.

The very meaning of "hereditary" is not understood. If any quality is truly hereditary then it is always hereditary. It never occurs except as the result of heredity, and it is constant—that is to say, it invariably follows. But there is no quality of which this can be said. That genius is not hereditary is known. Even talent is not. Nor is any aptitude. A lawyer's son more often wants to be a soldier or an artist than a lawyer, notwithstanding the environment, and it is so with most professions. The exceptions seem to be due to training and influence, not to hereditary transmission.

A superficial likeness to parents seems hereditary, but that is all that we can assert, and that outward likeness by no means infers an inward likeness. There is nothing so easy and nothing so fatal as this tendency to attribute to heredity what is due to training or want of training. It excuses supineness in governments and professions. H. Fielding Hall in Atlantic Monthly.

Thin Cutting.

When Irvin Cobb, the writer, was on the World he attended a ball game at the Polo grounds. The yard was packed. Just before the game Harry Stevens, who had the refreshment privilege, strolled by the press box and called out to a group of which Cobb was a member:

"Great crowd, eh, boys? I'll bet there's 6,000 more people here than they expected. I guess that means I'll have to go in and prepare about 4,000 more ham sandwiches."

"Well," remarked Cobb, "that will pretty nearly necessitate the cutting of another ham, won't it, Harry?"—Everybody's.

Green liquid soap, which is recommended by skin specialists for fine skins or for those which have the pores extended, can be made at home. Add the glycerin and lastly, after the kettle is removed from the fire, the alcohol. Add a tablespoonful of eau de cologne, if perfume is desired.

Antiquity of Leather.

Leather was early known in Egypt and Greece and thongs of manufactured hides were used for ropes, harness and the like by ancient nations. The Gordian knot was made of leather thongs. A leather cannon was made at Edinburgh, fired three times and found useful in 1778.—Kansas City Times.

MAKING OF MAPS.

The First Attempt Was by Anaximander About 560 B. C.

Anaximander, a pupil of Thales, about 560 B. C., sketched the first map. It was in the form of a disk. Democritus of Abdera, about 100 years after, with a wider range of knowledge, drew a new map, giving the world an oblong form, showing extension east and west rather than north and south.

The first application of astronomy to geography was made by Pytheas of Marseilles about 326 B. C., he having made the first observation of latitude. Hipparchus of Nicaea, 162 B. C., first determined latitude and longitude. Marinus of Tyre, about 150 B. C., was the first to make use of Hipparchus' teachings in representing the countries of the world.

Claudius Ptolemy of Peltasium, Egypt, about 162 A. D., was in reality the first scientific mapmaker. Notwithstanding errors in boundaries and locations, the method was correct. The Romans contributed nothing to mapmaking. No improvement was made in it from the time of Ptolemy until the thirteenth century, when a map appeared in Italy which was constructed with the aid of a compass.—Exchange.

Old Time Football.

In the twelfth century London enjoyed football. Fitz Stephen, clerk to Thomas a Becket, tells how after dinner the youths of the city would "ad dress themselves" to football. These sportsmen were fastidious in their way. The scholars of each school had a ball peculiar to themselves, as had, indeed, most of the particular trades. The fathers of the players, too, were "as youthful as the youngest," for "their natural heat seeming to be revived at the sight of so much agility," they sprang from their stands into the arena. In later days, too, the excitement of the game has been known to infect the spectators. Somebody wrote of a game in 1598: "These two men were killed by Ould Gunter. Gunter's sonnes and ye Gregories fell together by ye years at football. Ould Gunter drove his dagger and broke boote the their heads, and they died boote the within a fortnight after."

Lightning Shuns Women.

Statistics appear to show that men are more likely to be struck by lightning than women, more than two men being killed by it for every woman. But a London Journal points out that the man's occupation is more likely to take him into the open when lightning is about. It has been observed, however, that in a group equally composed of both sexes lightning seems to prefer the man, and we may theorize at pleasure as to whether it is the comparative height that does it or some protection afforded by the woman's dress or a difference in conductivity between the sexes. The fact that children are seldom killed by lightning supports to a certain extent the first of these theories.

Let Down the Blind.

A youngster had been to the theater, and upon his return his uncle asked him how he liked the play. "Oh," he replied, "the play was all right, but I didn't see nearly all of it." "Why, how did that happen?" asked his uncle. "Because," answered the youngster, "the roller must have been broke, for the window blind fell down two or three times."—London Express.

His Idea of It.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS HELD CONFERENCE WEDNESDAY

Heard Explanation of Recent School Legislation by Mr. Montgomery—Organization Formed.

School officers of Morgan county to the number of 75 met Wednesday in the office of County Supt. H. C. Montgomery for a conference. The meeting was called by Mr. Montgomery and the hour fixed for noon in order to accommodate those compelled to leave the city on early afternoon trains. Notwithstanding the unpleasant weather and the bad condition of the roads the attendance, as already indicated, was large and many of the officials present were from distant parts of the county. The conference resulted in the formation of the Morgan County School Directors' association. Officers were elected and an executive committee was appointed to discuss some recent legislation with reference to school matters and to report at another general meeting Nov. 6. This committee will meet next Saturday for organization and for the consideration of various subjects.

Supt. Montgomery talked for a few minutes on equipment of schools, giving his ideas as to what are the most essential things for school equipment. He spent the greater time, however, in discussing recent school legislation. One law passed by the last general assembly provides that in school elections directors shall furnish ballots and give notice of such an election at least ten days before it is held. This law has been mentioned frequently as applying to all school districts and Mr. Montgomery made it plain that it does not have application except where the schools are managed by boards of education organized under the general law. It will affect therefore, only the schools of Waverly and Meredosia in Morgan county.

New Tuition Law.
Mr. Montgomery discussed at some length the new tuition law which provides that a township which does not have a high school must pay the tuition of pupils resident therein who wish to attend high schools elsewhere. He said that he was very much in favor of giving a high school education to every child, but that he did not consider tuition must be paid while another law provides that not more than 2½ per cent shall be levied for maintaining the school. The speaker believed that in some districts that the graded school could not be maintained if tuition must be paid in the high schools. In other words he meant that the tax of 1½ per cent would not be sufficient to defray the ordinary school expense and the high school tuition. He said further that in a number of districts that the directors recognized this difficulty and while they were willing to pay tuition if it can legally be required of them that they were considering reducing the number of months for the graded school and in cutting down the salaries of teachers.

Organization Formed.
Mr. Montgomery also said the new law is in conflict with the township high school law and that under it there will be no incentive for the establishment of township high schools and the ones already in existence would lose many of their pupils. Other subjects were discussed in an informal way and the whole session proved one of great interest and profit. The officers of the new association chosen are:
President—John W. Clary.
Secretary—Fred Schofield.
Treasurer—A. L. French.
The executive committee includes the following, the names and the districts they represent both being given:

S. D. Beerup, Alexander.
J. H. Hubbs, Prentice.
Scott B. Greene, Mauvalsterre.
J. W. Arnold, Arnold.
J. E. Osborne, Murrayville.
Jerome Culp, Woodson.
Allinson Thomason, Markham.
A. L. French, Chapin.
August Brockhouse, Baker.
E. R. Criswell, Appalonia.
W. E. Seymour, Hartland.

This committee will meet next Saturday and it is likely that they will get legal advice as to the advisability of testing the tuition law out in the courts.

WHY 7,000 DRUGGISTS

Guarantee and Recommend Vinol.

If any one should know the value of a medicine it is the retail druggist who sells it.

Therefore, when over seven thousand of the best retail druggists in the country recommend Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, without oil, as the greatest tonic re-creator and strength creator they have ever sold, it must indicate the value of Vinol.

Would you publish columns of such testimony as the following:

J. C. Brady, druggist of Fall River, Mass., says: "In cases where cod liver oil, emulsions and other tonics fail, Vinol will heal, strengthen and cure."

C. A. Potterfield, druggist of Charleston, W. Va., says: "It is a pleasure to sell Vinol, as it gives such universal satisfaction."

Hunter & McGhee, druggists of Jackson, Miss., say: "We have great confidence in the strength creating and curative value of Vinol."

"We ask every run-down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person or any person suffering from chronic coughs, colds or bronchitis, to try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding if it does not do all we claim their money will be refunded."

OBITUARY.

The funeral of Mrs. James G. Winterbotham of Camargo, whose death occurred Wednesday, was held at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon from the family residence in Camargo. Burial was made in the Camargo cemetery.

The deceased was the third child of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Jarman and was born in Camargo, Sept. 7, 1859. Mrs. Winterbotham spent her early life in the place of her birth and attended the public schools until the age of 17 years, after which she entered the Illinois Woman's college of Jacksonville, which institution she attended for three years.

Mrs. Winterbotham always remained an enthusiastic supporter of the institution, recognizing its beneficial influence upon her own life and its power for good on young womanhood of the state and nation by substantial aid to the several calls for funds looking to the greater glory of the institution.

It was while attending the college that she met James G. Winterbotham, the eldest son of the Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Winterbotham, then of Jacksonville, which meeting ripened into deeply seated affection, resulting in their happy union July 13, 1903. They at once made their home in Chicago, remaining there for seven years, after which they removed to Springfield and remained here until Mrs. Winterbotham felt that duty called her back to her place of birth to care for and cheer her aged father in his declining years.

It was while living in Springfield that Mrs. Winterbotham manifested her interest in religion. She enjoyed the association of the First Christian church and the influence of those associations upon her life was very feelingly expressed to a beloved relative indicating the spirit of change and thought in her life.

This change of thought and purpose was further emphasized by her connection with the several organizations to which she was a member. Her membership in the Springfield association of the Illinois Woman's club manifested her faithful allegiance and loyalty to the great institution in which she was so much interested. She was also a member of the Willing Circle of King's Daughters, and it was in this organization that she found great delight in giving attention and kindly thoughts to the aged.

She was an enthusiastic member of the Springfield Art club, recognizing its intellectual benefits and endeavoring to further its highest interests. A number of out of town friends and relatives attended the funeral. Mrs. Nettie Rucker and O. H. Hunnely of Georgetown, Ky., Dr. Howard Carriel of Marquette, Mich., E. W. Gilliam of Winchester, Ill., Mrs. Elizabeth Winterbotham of Jacksonville, Ill., Mrs. Charles Colby, Mrs. H. E. Hensley, Miss H. S. Lovejoy and Miss Maybelle Parrott of Springfield, Mrs. G. K. Harris of Peoria, Ill., J. H. Requath, Carroll D. Schnepf and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Johnson of Springfield were among those who attended the funeral.

ELECTION IN NEWFOUNDLAND.
St. John's, N. E., Oct. 29.—The electors of Newfoundland will decide tomorrow whether the government of Sir Edward Morris shall be continued in office or Sir Robert Bond shall again be placed at the helm of state after a lapse of nearly five years, during which period he has been the leader of the opposition. The campaign which closed today has been one of the most vigorous ever waged in the colony.

Unbiased observers predict that the victory of either party will be by a narrow margin. The obliteration of old questions and which previous campaigns have revolved and the substitution of new issues make it difficult to predict the results of the election with any degree of certainty.

For instance, the old dispute over American fishing rights, which has been a staple issue in Newfoundland political campaigns for many years, does not figure at all in the present conflict. The question was permanently disposed of by the passage of the Underwood tariff bill, which provides for the free entry of fish at American ports. The elimination of the fishing question as an issue may upset all calculations as to the election results, since nine-tenths of the population of Newfoundland is interested directly or indirectly in the fisheries.

SEEKS PARTITION OF FARM IN WHICH HE HAS INTEREST

Andrew O. Harris Brings Proceeding Directed Against His Mother and Half Brothers—Farm of 197 Acres Involved.

Andrew O. Harris has begun a suit in partition directed against his mother, Mrs. Almarinda F. Robertson, and half brothers William Walter Robertson and John Wesley Robertson. The attorneys for Mr. Harris are Kirby, Wilson & Baldwin of Jacksonville and Barber & Barber of Springfield.

Farm Near Prentice Involved.

In the bill filed Wednesday it is set forth that Wesley Robertson died about Jan. 18, 1876 leaving his widow Mrs. Almarinda F. Robertson, now Mrs. Harris, and Franklin E. Robertson his only children. At that time Mr. Robertson was the owner of 197 acres lying between Alexander and Prentice. Further it is shown that Mrs. Robertson about Oct. 30, 1878 married Andrew J. Harris and that their only child is Andrew O. Harris the petitioner in this suit.

Further, it is set forth, that in 1887 Franklin E. Robertson, son of Wesley Robertson, died at the age of about 16 years, unmarried and intestate; and that he left surviving him his mother, his brothers, William Walter and John Wesley Robertson, and Andrew O. Harris, his half-brother who was at that time 8 years of age. At the time of his death, Franklin E. Robertson owned a one third interest in the farm before mentioned subject to the dower right of his mother.

Various Transactions Recalled.

It is further represented that about November 20, 1900, that John Wesley Robertson died to his mother all his right and interest in the farm, May 2, 1902, Mrs. Harris and her husband, Andrew O. Harris, son of Wesley Robertson, Mrs. Harris reserving to herself rents and profits of the real estate during her lifetime. It is maintained that by the death of Wesley Robertson, Franklin E. Robertson became the owner of a one third interest in the land subject to the dower right of his mother, Mrs. Harris; and that the said John Wesley Robertson and John Wesley Robertson became each the owner of a one third interest in the property subject to the dower of their mother; that upon the death of Franklin E. Robertson that his mother, Mrs. Harris, became the owner of an undivided two fifteenths of the property.

By the same means William Walter Robertson and John Wesley Robertson each became an owner in addition to the one third interest which they had previously inherited, a one fifteenth of the property, subject to the dower of their mother and that Andrew O. Harris, the petitioner in this case, also came the owner of a one fifteenth interest in the estate subject to the dower. Further it is set forth that by virtue of the conveyance mentioned that William Walter Robertson now has an interest of fourteen fifteenths in the land and Andrew O. Harris a one fifteenth interest.

Partition Has Been Asked.

The petitioner represents that he is desirous that a partition or division should be made of the land between Mr. Robertson, his mother Mrs. Harris and himself, according to their respective rights and estates therein. He says that he has applied to Mr. Robertson and to his mother for an equitable and just division of the premises and because of their refusal he has brought this action.

Other Suits Filed.

Other suits filed in the circuit court Wednesday were as follows: Central Life Insurance Co., of Illinois vs. R. C. Washburn, assignor, Rebecca Harsha vs. Continental Beneficial association, assignor, Richard Dolandson vs. Arabella McCuen et al, bill.

Woodson State Bank vs. J. E. Rawlings et al foreclosure.

Ugly Sores Quickly Banished

You Marvel How Worst Skin Eruptions Disappear as Result of Famous Remedy

If you should meet anyone varnishing a face with a greasy ointment, you best advice would be to quit such things and attend to the blood.

To successfully fight any blood trouble, some eruptive skin diseases, such as eczema, lupus, psoriasis, malaria or scurvy—get your blood under the influence of S. S. S. It is one of those rare medical forces which act on the blood with the same degree of certainty that is found in all natural tendencies. The manner in which it dominates and controls the mysterious transference of rich, red, pure arterial blood, for the diseased venous blood is marvelous.

Out through every skin pore acids, germs and other blood impurities are forced in the form of invisible vapor, the bowels, kidneys, bladder and all excretories of the body are marshaled into a fighting force to expel every vestige of eruptive disease. There is scarcely a community anywhere but what has its living example of the wonderful curative effects of S. S. S. Get a bottle of this famous remedy today, and if your case is stubborn or peculiar, see the Swift Specific Co., 210 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Do not permit anyone to talk you into some useless compound they put a substitute for S. S. S. No honest druggist will do this.

DONT TRUST CALOMEL

Thousands Experience Bad After Effects From This Dangerous Drug.

A Safe Vegetable Substitute Is Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets for the Laxative.

Dr. F. M. Edwards, a prominent physician of Ohio, has discovered a laxative and liver toner in a combination of vegetable materials mixed with olive oil, which is in effect almost exactly like calomel, except that there are none of the bad after effects.

Dr. Edwards has long been a foe of calomel, though he recognized its value along with its dangers. His distrust of the uncertain drug eventually started him, years ago, towards experiments with the view of discovering a substitute, and he has been for several years in possession of the long-sought-for combination, which is in the shape of a little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablet.

The results of 17 years' experience and practice are embodied in these marvelous little tablets. They are called Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. And their effect on the liver has been the means of relief to many of Dr. Edwards' regular patients as well as to thousands of other who have suffered and were afraid of calomel.

There is no necessity, when you take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, by following them up with nasty, sickening, griping salts, or castor oil, as you do after taking calomel. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

Traced Back to Henry, the great-grandfather of the above named Rockwood, enlisted for a three months service, the opinion prevailed that the war would be of short duration the colonial call for enlistment for three months. But the record show that before the war had he had re-enlisted no less eight times and was honorably discharged at the disbanding of the army. He was afterward pensioned.

Women students in American colleges and universities will have a chance to reveal their sentiments on "International Peace." The Lake Mohonk conference offers two prizes of $200 and $100, respectively, for the best essays on the subject by undergraduate women students in American colleges. For men students there is a prize of $100 for an essay on "International Arbitration."

Comparisons based on a butter-scoring contest so aroused the citizens of Rome, S. C., that they have erected a dairy barn and milk room on the grounds of the local high school, in order that the children may learn dairying as a regular part of their school work. Accommodations have been provided for five cows. Boys and girls of the 7th and 8th grades are studying the best methods of dairying under the direction of an extension worker from Clemson Agricultural college.

Correct style, finest materials, unexcelled workmanship is what Garfield & Co., have to offer you in overcoats.

MAPLE GROVE SCHOOL. The writer had the pleasure yesterday of a visit at Maple Grove school in South Jacksonville, and found things there in excellent condition. The board has wisely adopted steam heat which insures comfortable rooms, far better than almost any other system, and the pupils have no need to fear the cold this winter. The visitor spoke of travels in foreign lands and was well pleased with the attention given him and the intelligent questions asked by the pupils. The children of South Jacksonville are certainly a bright lot of boys and girls and it is always a pleasure to visit them and see what they are doing.

Derivation of Rockwood Name. The Rockwood name was derived from the Rocky Woods of old England and it was at the court of King Henry the Eighth, that a Rockwood from the king a manor belonged to one of the monasteries dissolved in his reign, and that, in commemoration of the victory, he gave from the king for his arms chess rooks. Hence the Rockwood coat of arms, according to the General Armory, pages 112 and 113, published in New York, 1844, shows their coat of arms as three, Argent, six chess rooks, three, two and one, upon a shield. A lion holding in his paw a spear.

First Ancestor in America. The first ancestor in America was Richard Rockwood, who settled in Massachusetts in 1730. His son, Thomas Rockwood, was in many Indian skirmishes in the early days. Particularly mentionable, he was in the historic stone house at "Boggs Pond" in 1676, when Philip's army of the warriors, and his band of exterminated. A hundred of his home burned many by the Indians and with his ally had to flee for their lives.

Petition Against Tax. A petition of his on file at Boston, dated 1678, prays that the general court abate a tax on the land that the Indians had burned house, barn, bedding and corn all that he had saved was, his ally, and that the tax was a hardship until he could again get a start.

Settled in Scott County. Their grandchild, Samuel Rockwood, was a graduate of Amherst college in 1826, and moved to Illinois a year later, passing through Jacksonville and going to Scott county, where there were trees enough to build fences and furnish fuel. There he purchased land near Mrs. H. H. His son, B. P. Rockwood, father of G. C. and H. G. Rockwood, still reside at that place.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES. Detroit has appropriated $8,000 for school dental inspection and clinics in 1913-14.

In Wisconsin 72 towns have entered a state wide social center organization.

Students at Hopkins academy, Hadley, Mass., learn to work concrete as a regular part of their course in agriculture.

In a group of 25 boys taking "part time" agricultural work in five agricultural schools in Massachusetts last year, two earned more than $100 each, twelve more than $200, and only three less than $100, from their farm produce.

Notwithstanding the troubled conditions in Mexico, 167 new government schools for the native population have been organized in the various states, according to a statement on Latin-American republics in the annual report of the commissioner of education.

As a result of a vigorous campaign waged by the Philippine bureau of education at Manila, there has been a decided increase in the production of corn, and a large decrease in the use of rice, formerly the chief article of diet in the archipelago.

High school pupils in eight American cities spent a million and a half dollars each school year for lunches. The American Home Economics association estimates that this amount, spent for lunches outside of school, will buy only $1,000,000 calories in food value; whereas if spent in the school lunch room, with its carefully supervised menu, it will purchase the equivalent of 178,000,000 calories.

LOCAL OPTION FORCES PLAN NATION WIDE MOVEMENT

Seek To Put an End To Liquor Traffic By An Amendment to the United States Constitution—Plans Endorsed By Seven Hundred Chicago Business Men.

The Anti-Saloon league is planning to wipe out the sale and manufacture of intoxicants in the United States by an amendment to the federal constitution. The outlines of the campaign were told at a luncheon given by the league to 700 Chicago business men at the Hotel LaSalle recently.

The Chicago Tribune gave the following account of the big meeting. Dr. Howard H. Russell, president of the league, said that lawyers now are drawing up the proposed amendment, and the league is establishing an endowment fund to pay all executive expenses and for the printing of literature.

"After we have solved the international problem, to keep liquor out of the prohibition states," he said, "the next step is national prohibition—to forbid the manufacture, sale, importation, or exportation of liquor except for medicinal uses. An amendment to the constitution is necessary. Thirteen states must ratify it."

Expect Little Aid From Illinois. "We don't expect Illinois to help much in the national campaign," said Dr. P. A. Baker, general superintendent of the league, "but we expect you to keep the liquor interests here so busy that they can't go to the aid of other states."

The educational work is to be entirely along the lines of efficiency, at first among the business men.

"The moral question is one for the clergy and the women," said W. U. Follansbee, an iron manufacturer of Pittsburgh. "The business men must consider the question of efficiency. My proposition is first that the saloon is wrong; second that is inefficient."

"What one thing costs you business men as much money as drunken employees? I have had trouble with factory superintendents, salesmen, and office managers, all capable men, except for that one thing."

Builds Town to Avoid Saloons. Mr. Follansbee told how his company had started a town in order to get away from the saloons.

"There are six churches," he said, "and one policeman. The answer is that there are no saloons."

Mayor W. W. Bennett of Rockford declared the present prosperity of the city, which has been both "wet" and "dry" is due to prohibition. "The manufacturers of Rockford realize the bad effect of liquor. To save money which they might have to pay under the employers' liability law they do not permit men to enter the plant if they have taken anything to drink. The coroner of Illinois in his 'safety' first campaign would find it worth while to investigate the number of accidents caused by drink."

Resolutions of Approval. At the close of the luncheon the guests passed resolutions favoring the support of Chicago business men to the movement, as follows:

Resolved, That we, the business men of Chicago here in session, today approve the national and state plans of the Anti-Saloon league, and appeal for the cooperation of the business men of other localities of the state.

MONEY MARKET AFFECTS SPECULATION

STOCK MARKET TURNS HEAVY IN AFTERNOON AFTER STRONG START.

Reports That the Mexican Situation is Entering Upon a More Serious Phase and Further Depressing News From the Steel Trade Helps to Turn Market Downward.

(By Associated Press)
New York, Oct. 29.—Quotations of the principal stocks were carried up a point or more in the forepart of today's session but the market turned heavy in the afternoon. The reaction in many cases brought prices under yesterday's close.

Conditions in the money markets here and abroad figured prominently in determining the temper of speculation. In London private discounts were higher, following the engagement there of gold for New York yesterday. In the home market, call loans were renewed at four per cent. The rate rose later to 5½ per cent.

Preparations for November dividend and interest payments and the continued flow of currency to the interior influenced the trend of the money market. Reports that the Mexican situation was entering upon a more serious phase and further depressing news from the steel trade helped to turn the market downward. The weekly review of the Iron Age, a recognized trade authority, was frankly pessimistic speaking of further price concessions, reduction in working forces and curtailment of operations.

ALCOHOLISM

Is the medical term—the only proper word that should be used as a name for that serious DISEASED CONDITION which always results from the constant or excessive use of intoxicating liquors—from the condition of the high class business or professional man who uses it as a stimulant or to overcome nervousness, "brain fog," desire, appetite, or "craving" for liquor, to that of the poor unfortunate man who has become a confirmed drunkard.

Every drinking man, his relatives and friends, should realize and know that what is generally called is in fact a diseased condition caused by the treacherous and virulent poison of alcohol retained and "stored up" in the system from previous indulgence and that no man can or will stop drinking, or regain health with this poison accumulating in his system from continued indulgence. It has been proved by the treatment of over 20,000 persons in 60 splendid, large, homelike Neal Institutes, established in principal cities that by the use of harmless, vegetable medicines taken internally without hypodermic injections the

READ THE JOURNAL

EVERYONE WANTS LIGHT.

Editor Journal:

The lighting of the city streets has never been done any too well. But for a number of years it has been continually growing poorer until today it almost amounts to a public calamity and a civic disgrace.

Many causes have been assigned for this condition, some of which are doubtless wholly false, some partially true, and others approximately correct.

Past officials have been charged with trying to wreck (whether true or not, it represents small knowledge and large talk) the city plant in the interest of the public service corporation and the present city officials have been charged with almost every misdemeanor in this regard, either by inference, innuendo or plain statement.

Now it is not my purpose to defend any part of the city administration, neither to make baseless charges against them. They seem to possess progressive ideas along the lines of public utilities as well as a desire to comply with the consensus of public opinion.

However, it is but fair to state the public looked with suspicion upon their action in having the superintendent of the Jacksonville Railway & Light Co. meet so frequently with the council in what seemed an advisory capacity. This man, representing a corporation doing business in the city streets without a franchise, had the nerve to threaten the council with his resignation as superintendent of the Jacksonville Railway & Light Co. if the council and the company which he represents came to an agreement at a lower rate on light and gas than he demanded. Doubtless his loss to the company would have been irreparable, as the loss to the city of such a distinguished citizen. Furthermore, they resent the actions of the council in seeming to make a kind of messenger boy of the city attorney to run errands between the council and the Jacksonville Railway & Light Co.

The Jacksonville Railway & Light Co. have no intention of doing business in this city for the welfare of local people, neither will they submit "any" proposition through the local superintendent for the benefit of any one but themselves. The council and citizens have a right to look upon their every proposition with suspicion.

The only excuse for the existence of the Jacksonville Railway & Light Co. being in the city, their only purpose or intention, is to further their own economic interests, to furnish the poorest grade of service at the highest price. While it is to the interest of the people, both as citizens of the commonwealth, and as individuals, to produce the best service at the cheapest possible price. The interests are fundamentally different and they cannot be reconciled by all the sophistry in the world. Also, it is very probable that this aged local issue has suddenly reached such large proportions because of the desire of the Jacksonville Railway & Light Co. to try and forestall the operation of the new public utility law for well they know that the people are becoming very much enlightened on these subjects. Yet, while it is up for discussion, being one of the most vital of local issues, it should be intelligently settled along progressive lines, and in accordance with a common interest of the general public.

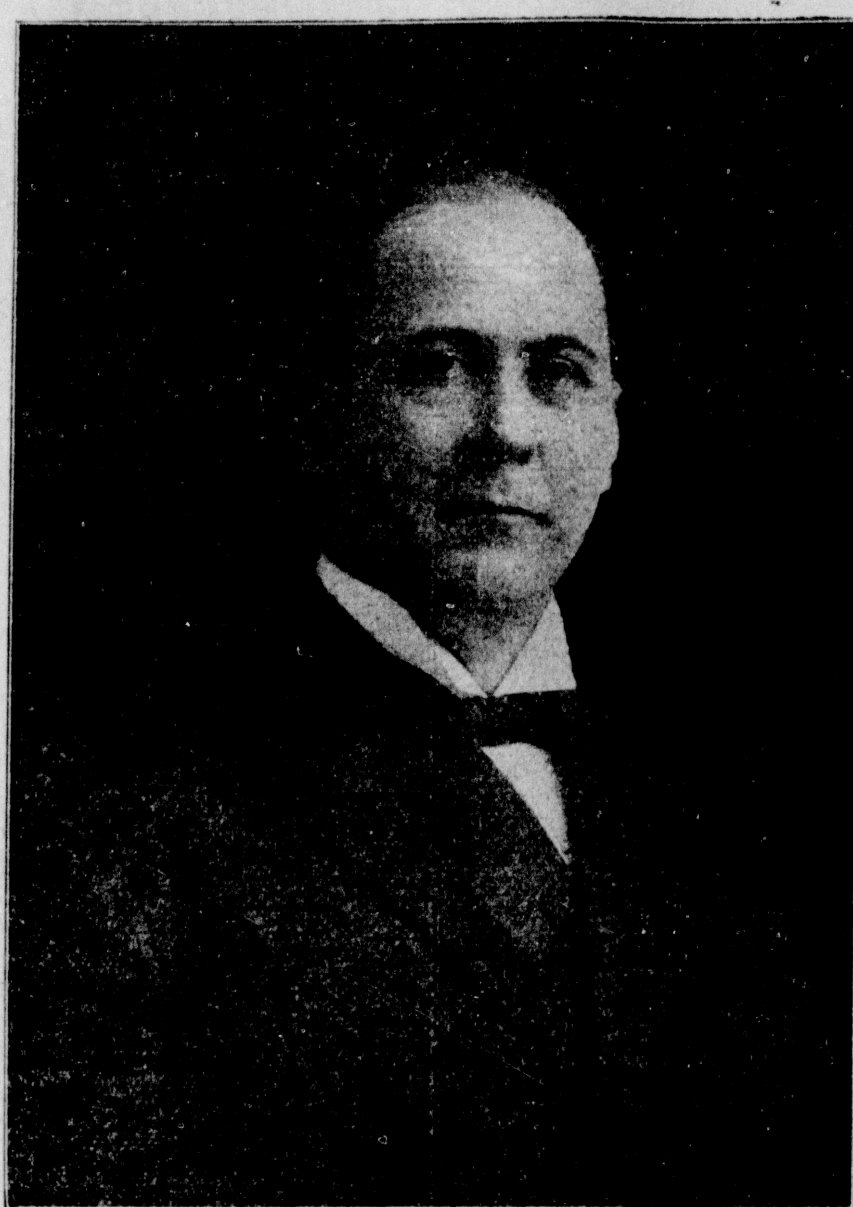

The rate service demanded of the council by Mr. Miser and the agreement which the council seemed willing to make, were entirely too high, even for service furnished by a corporation, while the statistical history of municipal ownership shows that the average cost is much lower.

Twenty-four percent of the cities of the U. S. light their own streets, while many of them do commercial lighting. And for the first time in the history of Illinois the people of municipalities have an opportunity to stop the extortion of public service corporations by engaging in any and every kind of public service.

It is entirely within the province of the people and they would be justified by self-interest, the ethics of civilized society and the morals of capitalism, in appointing a commission to assess the actual physical value of the property owned by the Jacksonville Railway & Light Co. in accordance with the provisions of the new law, take it over, rebuild and extend the street railway, also enlarge and extend the electric light and gas plants so that they could do all of the commercial lighting of the city. The law provides that these things can be done by issuing bonds or certificates against the proceeds or earnings of such utilities, and that the property of the people is not taxable (except by their consent) for the liquidation of these obligations. The present or future indebtedness of the city, aside from this has no bearing upon the subject.

By doing this to the extent of from $200,000 to $500,000 the public buildings, streets and houses will be better lighted at a much lower rate, the price of city property will be greatly advanced and the citizens will be better served and better satisfied.

In proof of which we offer the following instances of public ownership in cities, some of which are larger, some smaller than this. However, the size of the city has very little to do with it as the ratings paid in city owned plants will prove. The Milwaukee Gas Light Co. (as required by the laws of Wisconsin) in their report to the Railroad Rate Commission, for the year ending June 30, 1910, gives the following itemized report, then arrangement of which was taken from the Milwaukee Leader of Dec. 8th.

HON. C. A. WINDLE.

Every ton of coal produces

	Gross revenue	Cost of production	Credit balance
(1) 3,980 c. ft. gas (4.99 c. ft. per c.) which at 75 c per 1,000 ft. nets, in round numbers	$7.50	$4.35	$3.14
(2) 1,400 lbs coke which at works sold at $4.70 a ton, nets	3.29	.50	2.79
(3) 12.12 gal. tar at $9.26 gal. at works nets	.32	.01	.31
(4) 4.82 gal ammonia which at works nets	.46	.11	.35
Totals	$11.57	$4.95	$6.62
Cost per ton of coal at work	$2.49
Net revenue of each ton burned	$4.10

Wheeling, West Virginia (population 41,441) has supplied gas at 75c per thousand ft. since 1887 and yet in spite of this it has entirely paid for its self and turned over $400,000 to the city besides.

Another municipal ownership is submitted tending to show the desirability of municipal ownership and control. Eleven years ago Holyoke, Mass., purchased the gas and light plant for $815,458 and today the plant is valued at $1,493,778 after full allowance had been made for depreciation. During that time $383,388 of bonds were paid out of the earnings and $530,720 were paid for additions to the plant, a total of $914,108, out onto the plant. This has been done in spite of the fact that the price of gas has been reduced 26 per cent, electricity 66 2-3 and of gas lights 55 per cent. Also, the amount of electricity used has increased ten fold and the amount of gas three fold.

Cities that fail in the management of public utilities, do so because of the ineffectiveness of officials who do not possess, either initiative or executive ability, or through some extraneous influence. It is a moral certainty, all things being equal, that the people can furnish their own service cheaper than they can hire it done. Private individuals and corporations, establish ratings calculated to pay interest on investment and replace the original within a specified time. Then they are not satisfied. After the people have returned from the original amount, with interest, the price of management and maintenance, still they are not satisfied. They still claim the right to get something for nothing by laying upon the people by the ownership of something for which they have already been paid.

The people, however, are interested in efficient service at the lowest possible rate, the consummation of a common interest, and this they can only get by conducting their own business.

Very truly

"Finest Heating Stove in the World"

We Can Save You Hundreds of Dollars on Coal-Bills

We can do it with a Favorite Base Burner. The Favorite will save at least two tons of coal every year it is in use. Two tons of hard coal cost $14.00. If properly taken care of, the Favorite will last at least 25 years. Total saving, $350.00. Perfectly clear, isn't it, and more than that, perfectly true.

The Favorite has features that make it the most wonderful and economical heating stove in existence—and these features are all patented.

You may now have some other base burner in your home. Never mind that. Come to us, and we will exchange it for you, allow you a good price and put in one of the Favorites. You may as well save the price of two tons of coal this winter as not, and the Favorite will do it for you. It is the only base burner that will. We will back all of these statements and claims with a personal signed guarantee—put it in black and white if you want it.

Place the Favorite in your home. Try it all winter if you want to. If you do not find it just what we have represented it to be, and what others have found it to be—bring it back. We will refund your money.

Ask any other dealer to put their stoves to such a test. They would not dare do it. We can, because we know what the Favorite will do, and we know what it has done in scores of homes right here in this vicinity. That is why we can make such a liberal offer and know positively the stove will make good.

Come and see us and we will talk it over. Remember, we are willing to let you have the use of the Favorite all winter for nothing if you do not find everything we have said about it to be true. We will make terms to suit—cash or easy payments.

The trustees are given authority to pay to Mrs. Reisinger, Mrs. Faust and Mrs. VonGongtard such portion of their shares as they deemed wise.

This provision does not apply to the other two daughters, Mrs. Loeb and Mrs. Scherer. The income of the shares is to be paid by the trustees to the daughters in installments and "such income shall be the sole and separate property of the daughters, free from all and every interest, courtesy or control of any husband or any of them may at any time have."

CALLS FEDERAL LAND LAWS
A JARGON OF INCONSISTENCIES

Oklahoma Man Criticizes Administration of Affairs in the Interior Department.

Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 29.—Representative Scott Ferris of Oklahoma, chairman of the house committee on public lands, in an address before the international dry farming congress here tonight criticized the administration of affairs in the interior department and assailed federal land laws now in force as a jargon of inconsistencies that retard progress and development.

"Our land laws are in many respects crude, irreconcilable, insufficient without uniformity, confusing to the brain of the settler and impossible of interpretation by the layman," Mr. Ferris declared. "Most of our so-called and laws are simply a confusing mass of executive orders, rulings, interpretations and decisions made by bureau chiefs and clerks in the various offices of the interior department."

WILL ORGANIZE TO OPPOSE
LA FOLLETTE'S SEAMEN'S BILL

Owners of Lake Steamers Claim Some of the Provisions of the Measure Are Unreasonable.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 29.—Representatives of forty lake passenger steamer companies held an all day session here today to devise plans for organizing to oppose the LaFollette seamen's bill now pending in congress. Some of the provisions of the bill cannot be complied with for lake steamers which are never over half an hour's sailing from land, some of the provisions are unreasonable.

The vessel owners favor a bill which, in regard to the qualification of an able seaman, shall be even more strict than the LaFollette bill, which demands three years experience before the issuance of a certificate. The present plan of issuing certificates, they say, allow them to fall some times into the hands of seamen not fully qualified.

Mrs. Madero's Fears Arrest.
Vera Cruz, Oct. 29.—Mrs. Daniel Madero, in fear that she was about to be arrested went to the American consulate this afternoon and remained there several hours. She and Mrs. Evaristo Madero were brought here with their husbands, who were arrested by the federal authorities at Monterey. The two men are now held in San Juan de Ulua prison.

The two women have been trying to procure aid for their husbands so that their removal to the capitol might be prevented.

Italian Comment.
Rome, Oct. 29.—The Tribuna commenting on the Mexican situation points out the Italian interest involved.

It says: "There are about fourteen million Italians in the American continent whose fate would be affected if an impartialistic policy should triumph at Washington, because, in addition to meaning the conquering of Mexico it would lead to the suppression of nationalities outside of the American."

"As Italy is a Latin country she is interested in the preservation of the American-Latin republics."

Game Will Not Be Allowed.

Vera Cruz, Oct. 29.—An application for a license for a special game Sunday has given the authorities here an opportunity to express the official disfavor with which shore parties from the warships are regarded. For many months teams from the warships have been playing ashore and considerable surprise was caused when permission was denied the Louisiana team.

Consul Canada advised the representatives of the local team to take the matter up with General Maas, the commandant at Vera Cruz, but Maas also refused saying that in view of the strained relations between the United States and Mexico, a game could not be allowed.

Ordered To Return.

Havana, Oct. 29.—The Mexican training ship Zaragoza has received instructions from President Huerta to return to Vera Cruz with the former members of the special Japanese embassy, who are prisoners aboard. The ship will sail tomorrow.

General Captured and Rescued.

Mexico City, Oct. 29.—General Geronimo Trevino, one of the oldest army officers was captured by the rebels in an assault on Monterey. He lived near the railroad terminal which was occupied by the rebels and was carried away as a hostage when they were repulsed.

It is reported by the department of the interior that General Trevino was rescued by a force under General Pina who chased the rebels to the north of the city.

Girl Students Among Refugees.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 29.—Eight Mexican girl students of the Colegio Occidental at Guaymas Sonora left here today enroute to Hermosillo after having travelled 3,000 miles so far to reach their homes which are about eighty miles from the Mexican coast now besieged by revolutionists.

The girls accompanied by Rev. Frank Marrs and Mrs. Marrs who were principals of the college arrived here with a number of other refugees from the Mexican city. They have been more than a month on the journey. Before their departure from Guaymas by sea, efforts were made to travel overland to the interior of Sonora but considerations of safety prompted Mr. and Mrs. Marrs to accept offers of transportation from Rear-Admiral Cowles, the American naval commander on the west coast of Mexico.

Armies Are Concentrating.

Eagle Pass, Texas, Oct. 29.—Armies on both sides in northeastern Mexico are concentrating at Monterey, one of the largest troops movements in Mexico's recent revolution. Orders arrived here today from Governor Carranza for every constitutionalist in this section to hurry to Monterey, where fighting is reported still in progress. The constitutionalist forces now concentrating about Monterey are said to number 6,000 drawn all the way from Torreon. In north central Mexico to Matamoros in the extreme northeastern corner.

The federals have rushed to field guns from Piedras Negras and left but 200 men to guard that place. Navarrete, Tellez and Maas are leading other federal relief forces southward to Monterey from the border country.

Fighting at Monterey.

Laredo, Texas, Oct. 29.—Intermittent fighting was in progress today at Monterey, according to despatches to the constitutionalist command here. Renewal of heavy fighting was planned tomorrow, conditional on the arrival of about 1,000 constitutionalist reinforcements.

Federal dead to date were given at 250, with about 300 federals deserting to the enemy. Many constitutionalist residents of Monterey have helped the attacking forces very materially.

Immense war supplies, more valuable to the constitutionalists than fresh recruits were reported completed by the invaders.

These included twelve machine guns ten of which had never been unpacked, four cannon, 2,000 rifles, 50,000 cartridges and horses and saddles.

Jesus Carranza General Gonzales and Col. Maruaga are said to be directing the siege.

General Is Released.

Brownsville, Texas, Oct. 29.—According to a dispatch received at constitutionalist headquarters at Matamoros today General Geronimo Trevino, former commander of Mexican government troops in northern Mexico, was found in a prison of the federal troops when the rebels captured that portion of the city.

The general having taken no part in the battle was released by the rebels.

Four hundred federals, including one general whose name was not given, were killed, according to the dispatch.

LINEMAN FALLS FROM POLE.

Leo Stone, a lineman for the Illinois Telephone company, came in contact with a live wire while working on a pole near the Wabash station Wednesday morning and fell twenty-five feet to the ground. His injuries are not serious.

The current of the live wire was strong enough that his hand was severely burned and the shock from the fall rendered him unconscious for several minutes. Dr. T. O. Hardesty was called and the man was removed to his home. It is expected that he will be able to resume his duties in a few days.

TURNED ON STEAM.

At eleven o'clock Wednesday morning Supt. Catherwood of the city light plant turned on the steam which connects the boiler with the new electric engine and the big wheels began to move smoothly. There are some adjustments to be made still and then the engine will be given a thorough test. It cannot however be used for pumping from the Widenham and Daub wells until a power line is run from the plant to the wells. Commission Brennan and Mr. Catherwood attended to the entire job of installing the new machinery and a huge task it was to get everything lined up with perfect exactness. It was naturally, therefore, very gratifying to them when the machinery started off so smoothly.

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS MADE WITH MONMOUTH

Warren County High School Eleven Will Play Here Thanksgiving Day—Quincy Date Changed To Nov. 7.—Literary Societies Organizing.

Final arrangements have been made with the Monmouth High School managements, and their football team will come here for the Thanksgiving day game. In order to get them, the local school had to put up a guarantee of $125.00. Monmouth is one of the strong organizations of northern Illinois and the game promises to be a fierce struggle. It is expected that the attendance that day will be a record breaker and naturally a good crowd will be necessary to help pay the big guarantee.

Change of Quincy Date.
According to schedules, the high school and Illinois college both have games scheduled here for Saturday Nov. 8. Negotiations have been under way between J. H. S. and the college and as a result the manager of the high school football team has secured a change of date for the Quincy game, which will be a day earlier, Nov. 7. Illinois college plays Millikin university on the 8th. By having the game on Friday a number of business men will have an opportunity to attend. On Friday school will take place at 8:30 and the seven periods will run straight through until 12:30, with no recitations in the afternoon. The game will be called at 2 o'clock in order that the Quincy players can return home on the evening Wabash train.

Literary Societies Forming.
The two literary societies, which have been made possible through the new students' association constitution, are in the progress of formation. At a meeting held yesterday a temporary chairman and secretary were elected for each society. The officers will be a president, vice-president, secretary, chairman of program, social, music and publicity committees. The principal officers will be chosen the first part of next week.

MONSTER LOAF OF BREAD ATTRACTS ATTENTION.
The South Bend Malleable range is being demonstrated at the store of the Graham Hardware Co., this week. In connection with the exhibit a monster loaf of bread was baked in one of the ranges yesterday. A bread pan as large as the whole oven was made especially for this baking and the loaf came out looking temptingly brown. It is about 15x13 in dimensions and its weight is a matter of conjecture. Prizes have been offered for the two persons who register guesses the nearest to the exact weight of the great loaf and the awards are to be made Saturday when the loaf will be taken from the window and put on scales.

Friday night is known as Halloween and already a number of young people have announced parties for that time. A noticeable fact over the city is the already disappearance of porch swings, chairs and other loose articles about various homes, in anticipation of the visit of the "merry-makers." Scarcely a year passes but what some crowd, thoughtless of the consequences, does something that is far from a joke. The police expect to have special watchers out that night to see that law and order is maintained.
